12. In accordance with rule 68 of the provisional rules of procedure, representatives of the States parties shall be invited to attend the meetings of the Committee when their reports are examined. Such representatives should be able to answer questions put to them by the Committee and make statements on reports already submitted by their State, and may also submit further information.

13. In accordance with rule 68 of the Committee's provisional rules of procedure, the Secretary-General has notified the States parties concerned of the opening date, duration and place of the ninth session of the Committee at which their respective reports will be examined and has invited them to send representatives to attend the meetings of the Committee at which their reports will be examined.

Item 5. Review of developments relevant to the work of the Committee

14. Under this item, the Committee will be provided with information on action taken pursuant to recommendations adopted by the Committee at its previous sessions.

15. Additionally, the Rapporteur will inform the Committee about developments relevant to its work that have occurred since the preceding session. The Committee will also be briefed about developments relating to other human rights monitoring bodies.

16. The Committee will have before it a note by the Secretariat containing relevant information about action taken by the Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities at its forty-seventh session.

Item 6. General discussion on "The administration of juvenile justice"

17. In accordance with rule 75 of the provisional rules of procedure, the Committee decided, at its seventh session, that a day of general discussion would be held during its tenth session devoted to the question of the administration of juvenile justice, and agreed to invite interested bodies and agencies and individual experts to participate in that discussion, which will take place on Monday, 13 November 1995. Invitations were dispatched by the secretariat to relevant organizations and individuals in July 1995.

Item 7. Cooperation with other United Nations bodies, specialized agencies and other competent bodies

18. Under this item, the Committee may wish to pursue its discussion on ways and areas in which existing cooperation with various relevant bodies could be further strengthened to enhance the promotion and protection of the rights of the child.

Item 8. Methods of work of the Committee

19. Under this item, the Committee may wish to pursue its discussion concerning the organization of its future work, as well as the procedure to be followed in the consideration of reports by States parties and their follow-up, including where necessary areas identified for technical assistance; and the urgent procedure.

20. Under this item, the Committee will have before it a note by the Secretary-General on areas identified by the Committee for technical assistance and advisory services (CRC/C/40/Rev.1).

Item 9. Future meetings of the Committee

21. Under this item, the Committee will be informed of any developments relating to the schedule of its future meetings.

Item 10. Other matters

22. Under this item, members may wish to discuss such other matters relating to the work of the Committee as may be necessary.
